

The countryside charity
Hertfordshire

Standing up for Hertfordshire's countryside

Hertfordshire Life

CPRE HERTFORDSHIRE AWARDS

For those caring about their community and/or the environment

Supported by Hertfordshire County Council and Hertfordshire Life

Projects should include one or more of the following. They should:

- be conceived/fundraised for by the community
- give added value to community life
- have something innovative about them
- be used by all areas and ages of the community
- bring the community together
- provide for continuity
- promote access to the countryside
- celebrate Hertfordshire's landscapes
- enhance the countryside for all to enjoy
- promote local food/food production
- have potential for further development
- be environmentally friendly

Examples of Projects might be:

- community-owned/community-run shop or pub
- community-run minibus/taxi service/car pool
- Good Neighbours Scheme, adopt-a-granny
- community-run Festival/Event
- volunteer management of a community hall/community service
- creating footpaths/improving access to existing footpaths
- scheme giving urban dwellers access to the countryside
- photography or art project which celebrates Hertfordshire countryside
- campaign to protect a valued local area from inappropriate development
- volunteer litter-picking group
- pub/restaurant/shop sourcing locally grown foods
- community orchard/playground/garden

All projects considered should:

- protect, promote and enhance towns or villages and/or the surrounding countryside to make them better places to live, work, go to school or enjoy for today and tomorrow.

Special awards:

These recognise people and businesses which have made an outstanding contribution to improving life in their community or enhancing the environment in Hertfordshire:

Dorothy Abel Smith Award, presented to a young person aged up to 21

Peterkin Award, presented to an adult over 21

Business in the Community Award

Judges review the nominations during the summer and the Awards will be presented at an evening event in October