Standing up for Hertfordshire's countryside

Projects Volunteer

Flexible home-based role

CPRE Hertfordshire is a long-standing and well regarded environmental charity dedicated to protecting, promoting and enhancing the Hertfordshire countryside for everyone's benefit.

We regularly undertake research and advocacy projects on issues affecting the countryside, including planning, transport, biodiversity and rural policy.

We are seeking analytical and curious volunteers to help investigate issues and support evidence-based campaigning.

What will you be doing?

- Reviewing planning, transport or environmental documents
- Conducting research and analysis
- Producing summaries and briefing papers
- Gathering evidence to support campaigns
- Assisting with consultations and policy responses
- Supporting specific projects as they arise

What are we looking for?

- Strong analytical and research skills
- Ability to understand complex reports and technical information
- Good written communication skills
- Experience in policy, transport, planning, local government, research or a related field is desirable
- Interest in environmental issues
- Strong Microsoft Office skills and must have own computer

What difference will you make?

Campaign to Protect Rural England Hertfordshire

At CPRE Hertfordshire we want to encourage everyone to connect with the countryside and value and enjoy it. In this key role your research, analysis and written output will inform our campaigns and help us connect with new audiences. You will gain the satisfaction of knowing you have helped make a difference.

What's in it for the volunteer?

Some of our existing volunteers have been with us for many years. Why do they volunteer with us and what might you get out of it?

- Be part of a well-respected environmental charity and learn about issues facing the countryside
- Volunteer alongside others who are passionate about the countryside, nature and the environment.
- Make a real difference for a cause that you care about.
- Be part of a small and friendly team and meet like-minded people
- Enhance your CV by developing new skills and gaining valuable experience
- We will provide an induction and support you in your role
- The opportunity to participate in local and national CPRE training and events
